INTERWRITE™ PAD

WIRELESS SOLUTION FOR OPTIMAL TEACHER MOBILITY—
*engage and immerse your students in a way you never thought possible.

INTERWRITE™ PAD

Would you like the freedom to move around while teaching? The Interwrite™ Pad revolutionizes how lessons and lectures are taught.

Wirelessly connected to your computer and a projector, the Interwrite™ Pad and the award-winning Interwrite™ Workspace software gives you the freedom to manage your lesson from anywhere in the room. Plus, with a rich database of digital images, simulations and interactive lessons, you can turn a standard lesson or lecture into a completely interactive one.

#1 Selling Pad in the World!

Highlights:

- #1 leading wireless pad worldwide, so you are sure that it's been tested and meets the demanding needs of teachers and students.
- Award-winning, easy-to-use Interwrite™ Workspace software is included FREE giving you access to an extensive digital library of images, simulations and lessons along with over 50 annotation tools for creating, displaying, annotating, recording and sharing your lessons.
- Bluetooth™ wireless device lets you teach from anywhere in the classroom (up to 300 feet) or pass it to students and let them contribute from their desk.
- Use with the Interwrite™ Board or simply project computer images onto any surface to create an interactive whiteboard.
- Use the Pad for a full week (40 hours) before recharging is needed.
